Correspondence

Australia, UK,

Contact from Mukagowa – trying to win us back. If we are interested in future they will open up the adjoining room and the basement. Rick advised that we will definitely keep it in mind for the future.

Rick continues to get messages for charities or donating medical.

Liz Coyle newsletters

Website – Report by Greg Muñoz to be forwarded for next month.

501 C3 Status – Application has been processed

BURNS NIGHT - Jim Armstrong was unable to attend.

17 Tickets sold so far.

Ruby was unable to attend

Dan Grimes and Shadle Park to perform

Angus Scott Pipe wants to perform for 20 minutes – Marie would prefer 15. As it is only 5 minutes the board agree that 20 minutes is reasonable as that is what they have always had.

Ruby is trying to get a Fiddle band. If they are not available, Carol suggested the Plaid Cat Trio. She has the contact information if needed.

Questions for Jim

Update on finding the EMCEE

Table favors - Tartan squares. – Rick has them in the Burns supply

Jim to contact the Lincoln center re table center pieces and if OK to add our tartan squares after they have set up.

Martinellis and Shortbread – Jim to pick up at Costco?

DAffiliate Reports

Spokane Valley Highland Dancer - Newsletter

Discussed advertising in the Thistle and the website. Due to potential spoofing possibilities the board agreed that no links to the website but they can advertise in the Thistle and the Highland Games program. Affiliates can have a small ad for free

John Wiess moved to adjourn at 2.48 pm. Stuart seconded and was unanimously agreed by all present.

Next meeting January 8th at 2.00 pm.

Respectfully submitted
